BC Ultimate Society Policy on Equity & Access

The BC Ultimate Society (BCUS) is committed to developing and providing opportunities for all individuals in the sport of Ultimate to reach his or her maximum potential in fitness and excellence.

BCUS believes in equity and access for all persons interested in playing Ultimate in BC. Equity is a concept of fairness and justice that coincides with our core value of “spirit of the game”. Equity does not necessarily mean that all persons must be treated in exactly the same manner. People may need to be treated differently in order to be treated fairly.

BCUS will work to ensure that underprivileged and underrepresented groups are a key consideration when developing, updating or delivering programs, policies and projects.

BCUS recognizes and supports people of the Canadian aboriginal community to participate in all aspects of ultimate.

BCUS will work with athletes from the aboriginal community to address needs and issues as they arise.

BCUS recognizes the challenges people with a disability face in participating in sport and endeavours to develop and operate programs to make Ultimate accessible to people with disabilities.
